Doings of More or Less Interest to Ourselves and Our Friends

If the News Item you are looking for is not here it is because we did not know about it or were without sufficient information to properly write it up for publication. If you know about it you should have told us about it.

No rain this week. The First National Bank of Windham has begun business. The Christian principle in action solves any problem, says Aunt Ada. The four labor leaders arrested in Chicago raids have been indicted for murder. Mrs. Lennon, Wilson Lennon, Mrs. Louis Card and children were in Norwich Sunday. George Wilcox caught a fine string of trout last week, and enjoyed the excellent cooking of Mrs. W.

Cook Book

The Morris Cook Book, which has been so popular in past years, and which has been out of print for the past few years is now republished, and is being distributed to advance subscribers.

Many additional recipes will be found in the new book, which add to its culinary value.

B. D. Phillips is at Goodyear Lake for the week.

Miss Leyada Wells has a situation in Morris—South New Berlin Bee.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore and daughter Edna were callers in New Berlin, last Sunday.

Mrs. Maud Shaw has been reengaged to teach the Maple Grove school next year.

Mrs. Lett Jenks is steadily regaining her strength. She was able to take an automobile ride Sunday.

The youth of Morris have become radio bugs, and a number of machines are being built by the youngsters.

Mrs. John Elliott and Mrs. H. C. Lull were in Sidney last week for a visit with Mrs. Elliott's daughter, Mrs. Carleton.

Hand in the personal items, we want them, you want them, and all of us will be made happy.

The New Berlin Gazette has stepped up into the Chronicle class by the installation of a Linotype machine for its typesetting.

That radio is a big business is at 'est by the fact that last month 57 corporations were chartered in this state, with a capital of $1,769,500.

Another appeal in the case of Herbert M. Smith for the killing of Lew's Johnson storekeeper and postmaster at Nineveh, is to be argued again this month.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Bartholomew and little daughter of Rome, are welcome guests at the home of Mrs. Bartholomew's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Sanderson, of South Broad street.

In another column we present the report made to the Controller of the Currency by the Second National Bank of Cooperstown. Our readers will find it interesting information.

The pupils of the Primary department of our High School are rejoicing over the possession of the Fifth Supervisory District Attendance book, which they earned through the month of April.

The labor war in Chicago is assuming gigantic proportions and some interesting stories are being circulated by both the police and the labor leaders, who have been placed under arrest in great numbers.

Floor oil made of one part boiler in need oil to three parts of turpentine cleans and does not darken the floor.

BIG EASTERN STAR DOINGS

Last Wednesday evening Jewell Chapter received an official visitation of the grand officers, including Dr. G. M. Blair, R. G. W. O'Connell, A. G. L. Fred S. Williams of Cooperstown.

The worthy matrons and worthy patrons as well as members of the chapter, numbering nearly seventy, were present to show their esteem for the grand officers and the strong fraternal feeling which has always existed between the two chapters.

The chapters at Edmeston, Lansing, and Cooperstown were well represented and several other chapters sent small numbers.

Mrs. E. L. Wilcox, the worthy matron welcomed the grand officers, and the district deputy grand matron received and introduced Mrs. A. L. Jackson, Mrs. Z. VanCleave and J. R. Kerlig, the past grand officers.

Mrs. Gertrude Sanderson, past matron of the chapter, in a few well-chosen words, then presented both grand officers with slight tokens of remembrance which they accepted most graciously.

Mrs. Wilcox conferred the adoptive rite on two candidates, assisted by the associate officers.

Mrs. Grace Linn rendered vocal and instrumental selections.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hall rendered pleasing musical selections to the excellent program.

Refreshments were served at the meeting of the usual standard for which Morris has a reputation.

The condition of Mrs. Harriet Kilder is not much improved in health.

Last week Old Forge suffered a fire loss of over one hundred thousand dollars.

Hobart Moore was in Deposit to repair a tractor Monday. Mrs. Moore accompanied him.

An old penny was found on Main street last week. It was covered with dirt. Owner can have it if they take it away.

Older girls should know better than to spoil the beauty and sanctity of the cemetery by picking and tearing up the flowers from under the trees. There are plenty of flowers in the woods and around the fair grounds and tractor pond.

E. shop Manning says no one has a right to disobey the dry laws. We have been saying that very thing until our tongues hang out. No one has a right to disobey any law. If a law is not right, kill it, but don't break it.

Rev. and Mrs. F. G. Leonard, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Southern, Mrs. George Wilcox, Mrs. Anna Pickering and Miss Helen Colvin were in Edmeston last Friday evening in attendance at a special meeting of Edmeston Chapter, O. E. S.

Mrs. C. H. Borden has been visiting with her many friends in Sidney prior to starting to her new home at Los Gatos Calif., for which place it is expected they will soon start to the great loss of their hosts of good friends in this section.

W. H. Sheldon, who has long conducted a horse market in Oneonta, and for much of the time auction sales each week at his stables, has disposed of the business to Fred Whipple, who took possession May 1, and will continue the business.

Mr. Sheldon has brought from the western markets hundreds of horses annually and has a wide acquaintance among the farmers in this section of the state.

MRS. HARRY MOORE DEAD

Mrs. Harry Moore of New Berlin, died at the home of Hobart Moore, in this village, last Wednesday, at the age of 19 years.

Mrs. Moore was born Hazel Rose Cady, in New Berlin, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cady of that place.

Mrs. Moore was the wife of Harry Moore of New Berlin, a nephew of Hobart Moore of Morris.

For some time she has been a sufferer from tuberculosis, which took her off.

About a month ago she was brought to Morris that she may be better cared for, and the county nurse made daily visits upon her.

May 18, 1919 she was joined in marriage with Mr. Moore, who survives.

The body was taken to New Berlin for interment in Fairview cemetery, Rev. E. E. Hutchinson officiating.

Besides her husband, she is survived by a daughter, Marguerite, 11 months of age, her father and mother, as well as a brother, Paul Cady of Rosebloom.

Among those present at the funeral services from out of town were: Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Brady and daughter of Kingston, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Moore of New Berlin, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Moore of West Edmeston and Paul Cady of Rosebloom.

Morris, N. Y.

More scandal is promised in the organized baseball.

B. E. Pudney, the popular music man of Sidney, spent a week with his uncle in Illinois, and exhibits a set of photographs to prove that uncle is a fine specimen of man and his home an attractive place to visit.

B. E. expects the old gent to live as long as some other people, so he can find time to call on him again.

If it's news and is fit to print you will see it in the Morris Chronicle.
