

CATARRHAL DEAFNESS

Often caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing. Unless the inflammation can be reduced, your hearing may be destroyed forever.

HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE will do what we claim for it—rid your system of Catarrh, or Distention, caused by Catarrh. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE has been successful in the treatment of Catarrh for over forty years.

Sold by all druggists.

Ass't Prin. Donald Goodfellow visited his parents in Oxford from Friday night till Monday.

S. S. Backus of Hartwick was a week-end guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Backus.

Mrs. H. J. Davis has been confined to her home the past week by illness. She is now on the gain.

S. S. Matteson and daughter Florence and Miss J. L. Matteson of Oneonta spent Saturday in Morris.

The farmers on West Hill have been filling their ice houses the past week with ice from the Pickens pond.

Mr. and Mrs. Harper Steele and son Curtis of Garrattsville were Sunday guests of V. L. Curtis and wife.

Mrs. Charles Rogers of this village has sold her place in West Laurens to Charles Sheldon of that place.

The best part of potatoes lies next the skin. Rub the cleaned skins with fat before baking, and they will be delicious.

Mrs. Charles Harrington and daughter Dorothy of Gilbertsville were visitors at the Universalist parsonage last Friday.

Ads. changed this week—Gage Bros., Elmore Milling Co., W. W. Sanderson, New Berlin Lumber Co. and Gardner & Naylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Schuyler Woodard and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Sloan spent Sunday at the home of Lynn Woodard in Edineston.

The farmer who repairs machinery in winter, and uses rainy days effectively, puts himself ahead of the driving duties of spring.

Franz Thresher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thurlow Thresher, is very sick with pneumonia. His many friends hope to see him around soon.

Lewis A. Light was a visitor at the home of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hendrix, in Rockdale several days last week.

Next week we expect to start a series of articles or sermonettes by the ministers of the village. The first one will be by the Rev. F. G. Leonard.

Mr. and Mrs. Addison Lull and daughter Mabel of Milford Center and Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Lull of Oneonta, were guests Sunday of W. Scott Lull and wife.

A. E. Hewel and daughter Polly of Oneonta were over Sunday guests of Mr. Hewel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hewel. Mr. Hewel is gaining slowly from his recent illness.

George Sprague of this place entered an Onondaga hospital Monday for treatment and an operation for an ailment which has afflicted him for some time. We all hope he will return home very much benefited.

Ernst Thurston, who owns the stone building corner Main and Broad streets, occupied by the Bank, is making over the rooms in the rear of the Bank for brick rooms to be occupied by his sister and her husband who will run a garage in the building just below, where the Chronicle office was formerly located on Broad street.

Alvin Gifford has purchased of his brother-in-law, Lewis Gibson, his house and lot on High street.

Plain linen toweling with colored borders makes excellent and serviceable luncheon doilies, such more easily laundered than table cloths.

William Lynn Gifford died at his home 681 Lake street, Morris, Monday morning Feb. 24, after several weeks' illness. The funeral services will be held from his late home on Thursday at 2 p. m. A more extended notice will appear next week.

From "Looking Backward" in the Sidney Record we find this item: "March 5, 1910—A hen in Morris owned by Frank Card laid five eggs at one clip. The eggs were very large and inside there were four other separate shells. It was an eggs-traordinary performance."

We see by the Star that Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martindale of Oneonta have filed a claim, through their attorney, E. A. Hayward, for $25,000 against the city of Oneonta for the death of their son, James E. Martindale, caused by breaking through the ice on Nehwa Park while skating on Dec. 15th.

On Friday night last about fifty people gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Melvern Bailey to celebrate the birthday of Miss Josephine. An enjoyable evening was spent with games and music, after which delicious refreshments were served. Miss Bailey was the recipient of a number very nice birthday gifts.

Serious Accident at Worcester

Wm. A. Tibbon, 89 years old, of Worcester, a section hand on the N. & H. railroad, was probably fatally injured last week Monday morning in the railroad yards in Worcester when he fell from a hand car, suffering three broken vertebrae in his spinal column. He was taken to the Fox Memorial hospital in Oneonta in a critical condition. Mr. Tibbon is a nephew of Asa and Frank Card of Morris.

B. Franklin Waite Arrested

B. Franklin Waite of Afton was arraigned in police court last week Tuesday before City Judge Rector W. T. Titus, charged with passing a check for $20 on the Globe Grocery Stores, Inc., without having sufficient funds in the bank. The check was drawn on the First National Bank of Morris. William M. Hatfield is complainant in case.

Waite pleaded not guilty and reserved all rights. He was committed to jail in default of $200 bail. He was represented by Merchant, Waite & Waite.—Binghamton Press.

Auto Driver Arrested

Claude Benjamin, 19 years old, of Morris, was arrested on Chestnut street, Oneonta, Sunday night by State Motor Vehicle Inspector Shaughnessy, charged with driving an automobile without operators license. He was taken to police headquarters and summoned to appear before City Judge Lee D. VanWoert Monday morning, which he did and pled guilty to driving an automobile without an operator's license and also to driving a car with improper registration plates. He was fined $50.—Star.

Village Caucuses

The Union Caucuses for nominating the village officers to be voted for at the election, March 10, was held in the Town House Saturday night, with about 23 voters being present.

Earl Gage, as chairman of the nominating committee, opened the meeting and asked for nominations for chairman. Henry Washburn and B. E. Gage were nominated and B. E. Gage was elected. Preston Wright acted as clerk.

The caucuses proceeded immediately with nominations.
J. F. Hay was nominated for president without opposition, as was Merrill Bridges for trustee for two years.
For trustee for one year to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Frank Coyle, Howard Sox and Chas. E. Gibe were named and Chas. Gage was nominated by a vote of 30 to 12.

Frank Davis for collector and Mrs. Gertrude Sanderson for Treasurer were nominated without opposition.

The chairman appointed Geo. Whitman, Loren Lull and Joseph Woodworth nominating committee for next year, after which the caucuses adjourned.
