Morris

Mrs. Howard Sheldon demonstrated the art of making velvet pictures at the Woman's Club, Oneonta on Wednesday, November 17. This is a revival of an old art and is taught at the Morris Arts and Crafts Center.

Mr. and Mrs. Riner Wassenaar were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sweet. After dinner they left to be overnight guests of their son, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wassenaar at Broadalbin. On Monday their son took them to Albany airport where they left for Denver.

Miss Amy Hoyer of West Windfield spent Friday through Sunday with her grandparents. She attended the Senior play, "Come Blow Your Horn" and Saturday she attended the Junior dance.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Johnson of the Long Island area have purchased the former Harold Rock property on the Morris-Garrattsville road. Mrs. Rock has moved into an apartment in the Morgan Gage block.

Mr. and Mrs. William Alley and Mrs. Hunter have purchased and moved to the former George Malone farm, Pearsalls Corner.

On November 13 Donna Bain and Jack Armstrong were married in the Peace Chapel in the United Methodist Church by Rev. Wilfred Lyon.

Butternut Valley Senior Citizens Thanksgiving dinner (for members only) is being held November 30 at 6 p. m. in the Zion Parish House. No program is planned.

Mr. and Mrs. Oskar Strauss and family moved from Norfolk, Virginia on Thursday into the house on High Street owned by George Laubmier, Sr. Oskar is the son of Mrs. Anna Marie Strauss and has been stationed in Virginia.

Spending the afternoon with the Ralph Goodiers were Mr. and Mrs. Willard Benedict of West Edmeston and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Harrington of West Burlington.

The Thanksgiving Union Service held at the Zion Church on November 21 was well attended with Rev. Paul Pison, pastor of the Holy Cross Church, Rev. Wilfred Lyon, pastor of the United Methodist Church; Rev. Winston Mariele, pastor of the Baptist Church, and Rev. William Matthers, rector of the Zion Episcopal Church. The choir was directed by Mrs. Lois Burdick accompanied by Mrs. Doris Shields, Zion organist. Readers of the Thanksgiving history was Rita Rock, Lois Carr, Corrine Colvin and Mrs. Otto Olson. A reception was held in the Zion Parish House following the service. The Thanksgiving offering will be donated to the Morris Fire Company Emergency Truck Fund.

Mrs. Hilda Smith left Saturday to spend the winter months with her daughter, Joan Ruthertford in Syracuse.

Mr. John Elliott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Elliott, an executive of the W. H. Naylor Company, is the 1972 Crusade Chairman for the O. C. unit of the American Cancer Society. Mr. George Martin, lawyer, will be in charge of the special gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mogler and daughter, Ellen of Randolph, New Jersey, spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Costello and attended the Senior play on Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernald Shields of Gloversville and Mr. Lyle Shields of Dallas, Texas, spent the weekend with their brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ken-raid Shields in New Lisbon.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Hess spent Sunday with their children, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Cole and daughter, Lisa Marie in Schenectady; Mr. and Mrs. William Mitchell and family in Waterford, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Robinson in Albany.

On Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hess of Norwich, in company with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Hess, spent the day in Utica on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gill were in Gloversville over the weekend to attend the funeral of Mr. Gill's brother, Frank Gill. Mr. Gill, formerly a noted baseball player, died November 12. In his earlier days having been captain of the Princeton University baseball team as well as that of the basketball. He was 83 years of age and had graduated from Princeton University in 1915. He is survived by his wife, the former Frieda Purcell, one son, one daughter and two grandchildren, all of Gloversville.

Miss Peggy Shamponis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Shamponis of Elm Grove, spent Thursday through Sunday with her parents and attended the Senior play in which her brother performed the part of "Buddy Baker".

Morris Library

The 1971 annual fund drive for the Kenyon Free Library of Morris has netted the library over $927.00, according to Fund Chairman Mrs. Joseph Milliken. The money will be used to buy new books, magazines, records, film strips and for maintenance.

There are approximately 500 regular users and a book circulation of about 8,000 throughout the year. Available for organizations are film strips and those which are not available at the library, can be procured out of Binghamton. A period of two weeks is needed for this service.

Many thanks and appreciation go to the workers who made this drive a success. A tea is being planned for the workers at the annual meeting of the library.

MORRIS EMERGENCY SQUAD ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

The eighth annual meeting of the Morris Emergency Squad was held November 2. At that time they elected new officers for the coming year as follows:

Captain, Fred Rendo; first lieutenant, Arthur Sherman; second lieutenant, Mrs. Alice Joy; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. William (Jacqueline) Pickens.

In its annual report the squad answered 140 calls, volunteered over 700 man hours and the ambulance traveled over 5,000 miles. First aid classes were taught in Garrattsville, Oneonta, Mount Vision, South New Berlin and Morris. Four members of the squad are attending the M. E. T. course at Cooperstown.

Instructors from the Morris squad will begin classes in first aid soon. Plans are being made to hold the classes in the Morris Fire House. Anyone interested in taking these classes can contact Captain Fred Rendo at 263-5308 as to time and date.

SHIELDS ELECTED DEAN OF ORGANIST GROUP

The Oneonta Chapter of the American Guild of Organists held its first meeting November 15 in the Schineman Chapel House, Hartwick College.

Twenty-two prospective members headed a demonstration of the new seventeen rank Carlson organ by Brett Edler, an organ student at Hartwick.

Officers were elected, including Mrs. Doris Shields of New Lisbon, dean; Sidney Chase of Worcester, sub-dean; Joyce Sloan of Otego, secretary, and Norman Eoper of Oneonta, treasurer. Father Donahue of Downsville is the chaplain.

The purpose and requirements of the American Guild of Organists were discussed. The next meeting is tentatively planned for January. Anyone interested may contact one of the officers for more information.
