More than 100 attend 126th Morris alumni reunion

The Morris Alumni Association held its 126th reunion at the Morris Central School on Sunday, June 28, with more than 105 in attendance.

President Lynn Joy welcomed guests and asked Maureen Joy to lead a prayer before the meal. A moment of silence was observed for all those members who have died.

The Gilbertsville 4-H Dairy Club and its leaders served a Brooks' Barbecue chicken dinner.

After dinner, the meeting was called to order by Lynn Joy who thanked the servers. He also thanked Arlene Pickens for printing name tags, and Amy Gage, Helen Hoag, Martha Benjamin, Jennifer Jones and Deborah Newell for help at registration and helping with mailing the invitations. Deborah Newell was thanked for supplying the ice cream in the memory of her father, Spiel Goodier. A thank you was also extended to Matt Sheldon and Judy Matson for getting the printing done.

Sheldon thanked the association for the scholarships that are provided each year and gave a brief update on school activities. This was the first year that any Morris students have received scholarships from the Clark Foundation and that was made possible because of a letter written by one of our students to the Clark Foundation. These scholarships will be continuing through their college career. Through a Smart Bond the school district has been allotted more than $500,000 to upgrade security or technology.

Reading of the class lists followed with the most elder persons in attendance from the Class of 1940, Vincent

The minutes and treasurer's reports from last year were accepted as mailed with a motion from Robert Hoffman and seconded by Wayne Harrington and were approved.

Barbara Smith gave a report on the golf tournament for the committee. There were 13 platinum sponsors, enough teams to make it a closed tournament, and three generations of Andersons winning the trophy this year. The winning team was R.J. Anderson, Brian Anderson, April Anderson and Dillon Anderson. The tournament netted the alumni $2,824 including sponsors, door prizes, 50/50 raffle, Mulligans, putting contest and the Colonial Ridge Golf club donation.

There was no unfinished business. New business came from Royce Webster, who made a motion that a committee be formed on scholarships next year. John Matteson seconded the motion and all approved. Robert Hoffman said it would be nice to see the faces of the ones receiving the scholarships. Sierra Alger said the students didn't know about the alumni, and Beth Child said scholarship winners should be invited.
