

—Binghamton Press Photo.

DEADLY PIPES—Assistant Fire Chief Arnold Rollins, left, points to holes in smoke pipes recovered from ruins of a rural residence near Edmeston while Coroner Joseph Phelps, center, and Chief Tom Lock-erbie look on. He said accumulation of creosote in pipes caused fire which claimed three lives early last Saturday.

Coroner Joseph Phelps helps investigate fire that killed three people.