Newspapers by Ancestry
https://www.newspapers.com/image/830580547

LATEST NEWS.

BY MAGNETIC TELEGRAPH,

Exclusively for The Repository and Whig.

Philadelphia Markets.

PHILADELPHIA, January 17, 1854.

Flour is firm on advance of yesterday, but there is little inquiry for shipment. Sales of 800 bbls. extra family at $8.00. Superfine is held at $7.75 without soliciting buyers. Rye Flour sold at $5.12½, now held higher. Corn Meal is in good demand. Sales of 2,000 bbls. Penna. at $3.62½. Wheat—4,000 bush. were disposed of at $1.70@1.75 for red and $1.85 for white, in store. Rye is scarce. Corn further has advanced, with sales of 4,000 bush. new yellow at 80 cents, part afloat.

Baltimore Markets.

BALTIMORE, January 17, 1854.

Flour has advanced 25c per bbl. Sales of 4,000 bbls at the uniform price of $7.50. Sales of 5,000 bushels Wheat at $1.70@1.75 for red, and $1.76@1.78 for white. Corn sold at 68@70c for white, and 72@75c for yellow. Whiskey is firm.

BY TUESDAY NIGHT'S MAIL.

LATEST FOREIGN NEWS.

ARRIVAL OF THE EUROPA.

TWO DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

PROGRESS OF THE WAR.

Treaty Concluded between Persia and Russia.

ARABS OF THE DESERT ASSISTING SULTAN.

LAST VIENNA NOTE ACCEPTED BY TURKEY.

RUMORED DEATH OF MR. SOULE IN A DUEL.

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.

The Royal Mail Steamship Europa, with Liverpool dates to Dec. 31st, (two days later than were brought by the Baltic) arrived at this port this morning.

Flour was a shilling higher; wheat 4d higher; corn a shilling higher.

TURKEY AND RUSSIA.

PARIS, Friday morning, Dec. 30.

The Moniteur announces that, according to the latest advices from Constantinople, the Divan was in perfect harmony with the representatives of France, England, Austria and Prussia, as to the conditions on which the Porte could with honor concur in the re-establishment of peace.

Private letters from St. Petersburg, of Dec. 19th, state that the ratifications of a treaty, offensive and defensive, were exchanged between Persia and Russia on the 18th.

The latest accounts from the Danubian Principalities state that the mortality among the Russian troops has considerably increased.

Letters from Aleppo, of the 19th ult., state that the Arabs of the Desert have raised five thousand men to aid the Sultan.

The Shah of Persia has dismissed all the English, French, German and Italian officers serving in his army.

The Russian army in the Caucasus has been reinforced by fifteen regiments of Cossacks.

Sweden and Denmark are both arming, in expectation of active hostilities in the Baltic in the Spring.

The Porte has consented to accept the last note of the Vienna Conference. If Russia refuses this, the Four Powers will commence active hostilities.

It is rumored that a change has occurred in the Turkish Ministry.

The Russians are preparing for operations of a decidedly aggressive character.

Warlike preparations continue to be made by France and England.

Accounts from Vienna state that the Russian steamer, the Pruth, had set fire to several Turkish villages, by throwing red hot shot.

Letters from Constantinople, dated Dec. 15th, state that the Porte had just contracted for a loan of thirty million piastres in three important banking houses of that city.

There is nothing new in regard to operations on the Danube. Omer Pasha and his army are in winter quarters at Schumla.

Ismar Pasha occupies Kalafat with twenty five thousand men.

On the 20th, a company of Wallachian militia seized their newly appointed Russian officers, and after beating them, deserted to Kalafat.

The Trieste Gazette states that the British Diplomatic Agent at Teheran has renewed relations with the Persian government.

The London Chronicle states that the Turks have raised the sieges of Akiska and Alexandrianople.

The English Consul at Teheran mediates between Persia and the Porte.

THE LATEST NEWS.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 19th.

Negotiations on the peace project have been commenced. The Porte manifests a pacific disposition.

The combined fleets are still at Beyos.

The Russians made an attempt to set fire to the allied fleet at the entrance of the Bosphorus. A fireship was sent towards them, but was discovered from the forts and stopped by artillery.

SPAIN.

It is rumored from Madrid that Mr. Soule has been killed in a duel with the Duke of Alba.

This rumor wants confirmation. Another report is to the effect that the Spanish government has interfered and stopped all further duels in reference to the Soule affair.

ENGLAND.

A Privy Council was held at Windsor Castle on the 29th, when Parliament was ordered to be further prorogued from the 3d to the 31st of January.

Letters have been received in Dublin from Smith, O'Brien, dated New Norfolk, Sept. 18th—three days later than the date of his reported escape from that place.

FURTHER EASTERN NEWS.

A rumor was prevalent at the sailing of the Europa, that the Shah of Persia had instructed his Consuls to discontinue their relations with the Queen of Great Britain.

The news from Asia mentions that the Rus-

Copyright © 2022 Newspapers.com. All Rights Reserved.
Powered by Newspapers.com