Yearbook Staff Message

Well, here it is - your 1968 Morrisianian. We sincerely hope that this year's book lives up to your expectations and will be treasured by you always.

We would like to thank everyone who made this book possible.
Now sit back, relax, and enjoy what we hope is the best yearbook ever!

The Yearbook Staff

Alma Mater

Morris High our Alma Mater,
For glory and for fame
We strive by all uniting
To raise our voices in proud acclaim,

We honor and uphold thy standard
Linked firm with bonds of white and blue,
We'll think of you, our Alma Mater,
To you we'll all be true.

We love the fair name of Morris,
Which long has stood without stain
It's here we work for Alma Mater
To guard her honor is our aim.

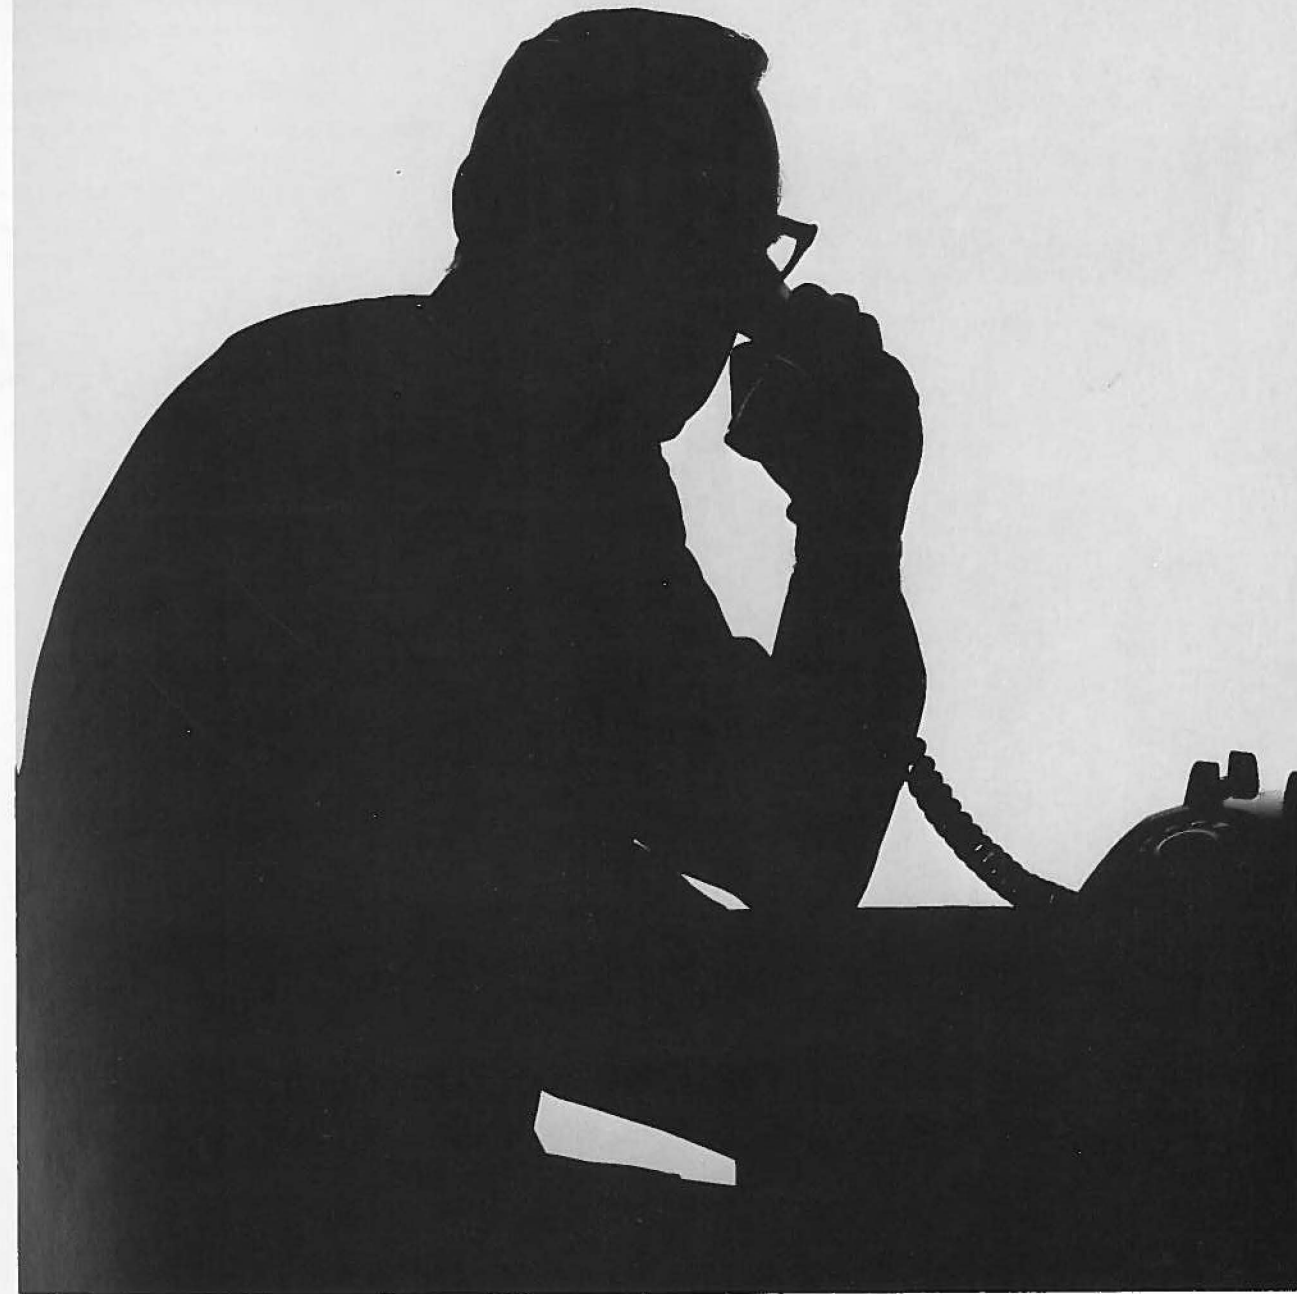

Your sons and daughters ever praise thee
As from your friendly halls they go,
And oft in mem'ry they recall
Their school days long ago.

Dedication

The Senior Class of 1968 would like to dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Henry Stafford. As our advisor he has guided us to where we are now. As a teacher he has given us new insights into history and social studies. As a friend he has helped us incorporate our own thoughts and ideas into our school.

We wish to thank Mr. Stafford for his guidance, and we are proud to have had him as a teacher.

ADMINISTRATION

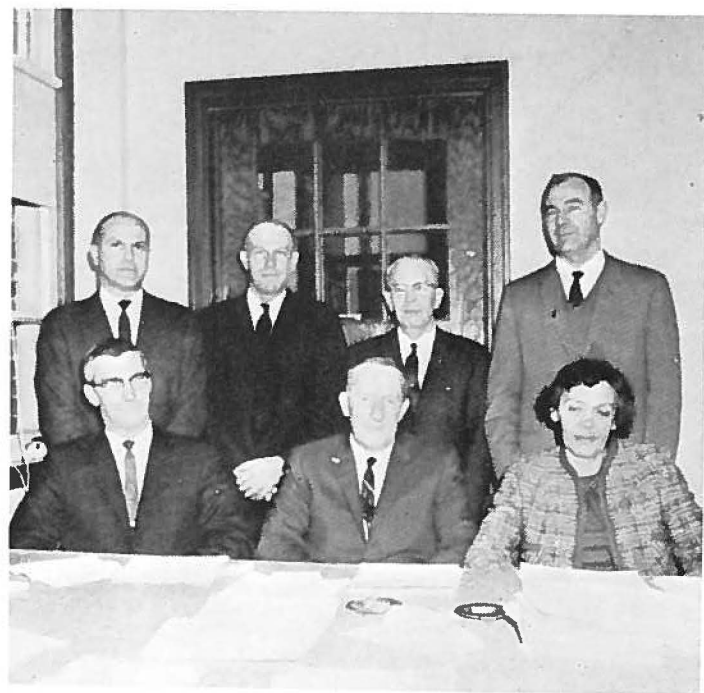

MR. RYTHER - Principal

Principal's Message

Today's graduates face an increasingly complex world as they embark on the voyage of life. It is at this point that most of you will leave the security and protective custody of your parents and home, to undertake studies away from home, or to serve in the Armed Services, or to take employment, or to get married.

The forces of the world that will influence you and pressure you are not easily coped with. How well you make out will depend on your training to date. Not the least of your training has been your education. I sincerely hope that we in Morris Central School have fulfilled our obligation to prepare you for your future.

Friends in Morris:

Well, I have so many things to say and if I start to tell you all my experiences I think I'd write a book, and somebody told me to write only a little article . . .

I'm very happy to be in Morris, here I met wonderful families and very nice friends, it is here I first saw "snow", it was one of my experiences and I love to watch the snow falling outside . . . and dream of many things.

I want to say "THANKS" to everybody, to my host families, my teachers and all the kids in school, you were so kind with me, and I'll remember this year like one of the best in my life.

If some of you want to have a Christmas in summer and sunshine instead of snow, don't think twice, pack your bags and go to Cochabambo, Bolivia. I'll be very glad to have you at home.

Now I have to say "CHAU AMIGOS" and don't forget me.

Sincerely,

Danda

Class History

In September, 1964, Morris Central School saw a brand new class of 50 freshmen. New members of the class included J. Brunschmid, M. Flannery, D. Northrup, W. Hugabone, J. Goodspeed, W. Hoag, and R. Moore. We also lost several members - K. Gould, F. Moore, J. Wood, J. Dunwald, and B. Madsen.

We elected as our officers: President - M. Flannery; vice-president - J. Flannery; secretary - P. Dugan; and treasurer - T. Winters.

Our class was well represented in most of the activities.

We sponsored activities to raise money for the senior trip. One of our activities was a dance - the first of its kind in Morris. We also had a movie and a slave day.

Each year various classes take field trips. One very interesting trip that part of the class went on was to Herkimer County to dig diamonds (quartz).

In September, 1965, 46 sophomores took their seats in Mr. Stafford's homeroom 30. New members of the class included M. Finneran, C. Faber, who left later in the year, B. Wright, J. Gutierrez, and L. Yager. Leaving the class were D. Northrup, R. Pegg, and J. Miles.

We elected as our officers: president - M. Flannery; vice-president - T. Winters; secretary - J. Walter; treasurer - J. Gutierrez.

An active class, we were represented on all of the athletic teams and all of the clubs, excluding the Yearbook staff, but including National Honor Society. Prize speaking was undertaken, and several members of the class participated in summer seminars.

An exciting experience for us was the ordering of our class rings. After much debate and indecision, we finally chose our round rings.

Again, as in previous years, we were involved in earning money for our trip. We held several dances and movies.

The beginning of our junior year again began in room 30. There were 37 of us. D. Valentine, S. Purdy, and D. Place were new classmates. D. Chase and J. Curtis were new members of the class, but left the same year, along with D. Nason, M. Flannery, and J. Pentzien.

We elected as our officers: president - L. George; vice-president - J. Gutierrez; secretary - J. Walter; treasurer - S. Purdy; and student council representatives - N. Tremlett and J. Lull.

We were again represented in all clubs and teams. Several members were on the newly formed newspaper staff. Several 68'ers are also charter members in the new Varsity Club. The senior yearbook staff also had several competent junior helpers. Three members participated in the Oratorical Contest after much prodding by classmates and teachers. They gladly took time out of American History to practice. The contest was climaxed by a "fainting spell" which caused some excitement.

In late September, any observant person saw an increase in class rings. Most of us liked them very much.

Two field trips taken during the year were to Cooperstown for Law Day and to Cornell University for Science Day. Students there surely must get enough exercise.

Representatives from Morris to Boys' State were Jim Lull and Bill Wright. Lois George was our representative to Girls' State.

Especially since our senior year was rapidly drawing near, we again sponsored several activities. We had dances and movies. Bringing the school year to a close was the Alumni Banquet. Moving tables, cleaning, even serving old seniors, and particularly eating the left-overs was a fun way to end the year.

By the time September 1967, and the beginning of one of the busiest times of our lives, rolled around, Mr. Stafford and the 30 on the door were familiar sights in the homeroom for the new seniors. We began the year with 32 members in the class. N. Stone, V. Splinder, L. Yager, and W. Harris all left, but the class has 3 new members: R. Holdridge, R. Kodrich, and B. Young. Another special addition to the class was Wanda Ivanovic, our exchange student from South America.

A few people from the class attend Vocational School in Oneonta every morning. It sure leaves a hole when we have a class meeting in the morning.

Class History Con't

Most of the teams and clubs this year have a senior member. Now we're the big wheels. One very exciting field trip during the year was taken to New York City by the small economics class. This trip started with a hard jolt about 3 o'clock in the morning for the girls---one in particular. The leaves did a fine job concealing a dark blue skirt.

One of our first senior activities was the magazine sale. Our total sales were about $800. High salesman was Jean Walter, who sold over $200 worth. We also sold candy. It was a very time-consuming job, but well worth it. Jean sold the most candy, too. Maybe she would tell her secret. We also were in charge of the concession stand for football games, and selling refreshments at basketball games. Dances number among our other activities. Our workday was not very successful, Mr. Weatherman wasn't very kind to us.

Senior pictures were also exciting. It was in most cases a new experience. The agony of choosing the least of the evils from among the proofs was terrible.

Chosen by the senior girls and faculty, Lois George is our DAR Good Citizen. Linda Guller won the Betty Crocker award.

One big event yet to come is the senior play with all the work and fun involved. The flats were painted and tryouts have been held. Cast members are: Jean Walter, Terry Quintin, Julie Brooks, Nancy Tremlett, Bill Wright, Pat Dugan, John Elliott, Pat McKown, Jim Lull, Lois George, Andy Wayand, and Cheryl Nelson. Prompters are: Linda Decker, and Linda Guller. Bob Holdridge is stage manager.

VARSITY BASKETBALL 1967-68

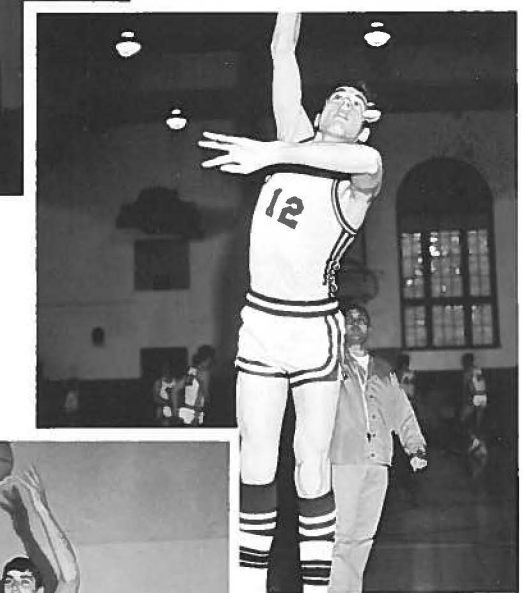

The 1967-68 Mustangs started out very slowly this year - losing eight out of their first twelve games. The Mustangs perked up and won five out of their last six games, which gave them a five hundred record. The team really came on at the end of the season - proving to themselves that they could win!

BASEBALL SPRING 1967

For the first time in many years, the baseball Mustangs won a league co-championship by posting a fine 8-2 record.

The entire season was most rewarding for the senior laden squad and Coach Case. An excellent team effort combined with many fine individual efforts, plus a great deal of hustle, provided the margin needed for victory.
