

New Teachers Begin Tuesday In Morris

Morris—Four new teachers have been named to the faculty of Morris Central School, which will open Tuesday with a half-day session.

Mrs. Madolin L. Wells, who will teach history, is a graduate of Morris Central School and Kenka College and taught for the past three years at Kellogg Central School, Treadwell. She succeeds Mrs. Gertrude Olds, who has retired after 40 years.

John McElroy, a native of Coudersport, Pa., and a June graduate of Mansfield, Pa. State Teachers College, will be music instructor. He replaces Bernard Bryan, who has accepted a position in the Sidney Central School music department.

Miss June Zimmerman, who will teach grade music, is also a June graduate of Mansfield, Pa. She will take the place of Miss Alice Bellairs, who will teach near her home in Stroudsburg, Pa., this year.

Mrs. Marion Jacobsen Dodge will be the school nurse on a half-day basis. The school has had no nurse for several years.

Other members of the faculty are: Lynn J. Seror, principal; Elmer Clapp, English; Ray Clement, physical education; Marilyn W. Crumb, homemaking; Fanny W. Daniels, seventh and eighth grade English; Loretta Flaseh, Spanish and French; Marie F. Flo, library and Latin, and Meryl Ann Herring, girls' physical education.

Lyndon Howlett, agriculture; Richard Knapp, vice-principal mathematics and science; Grace Mojzels, junior high science and mathematics; Alfred Zoch, commerce; Geneva Kraus, kindergarten; Palma Grossicchi, Grade 1; Mabel Wassenaar, grades, annex; Sylvia C. O'Brien, Grade 2; Theresa Hamlin, Grade 3; Corinne Colvin, Grade 4; Christina C. Durso, Grade 5; and Laura A. Harris, Grade 6.

Buses will operate on the same routes.

New Teachers in Morris

Clipped By:

bob_thomas_wk

Tue, Jan 4, 2022