

Clearing Skies Lift Threat of Major Flood in Southern Tier

Fair, Warmer Weather Is in Sight Friday

Chenango and Susquehanna Rivers Continue to Rise Slowly

Clearing skies today lifted the threat of serious flood conditions from the Southern Tier, accorded by a week of continuous rain.

From both the Binghamton Western District and Binghamton of the Binghamton Army Post, the weather bureau reported that the week had passed and the prospects of a better flood are excellent.

Under 100 rainfall were reported at the weather bureau as the most recent rain, about 1.10 inches, fell on the night of the 20th and 21st. The total for the week was 5.68 inches.

Having in the two counties was estimated at more than $100,000.

Bridge Season in Triple Cities Is Under Way

Legion Stag Tourney Begins 12 Fair Start Play in 2 Sections

With the opening of the ninth annual American Legion stag the bridge season is under way in the triple cities. The first night, and the second tournament of the triple cities bridge season, will be held at a stag dinner on the night of the 22nd.

Many Families $100,000 Toll Are Rescued in Delaware

Five Bridges Washed Out, Bridges Out, Roads Are Ripped

Binghamton Press Bureau

Delaware, Sept. 22.—(AP)—At least 100 families were rescued today in Delaware as a result of a major flood which washed out five bridges and ripped up roads.

PHOTOGRAPH BY HARRY RUBIN

Otesingon Lodge Confers Degree, Honors Visitor

The Otesingon Lodge of the Binghamton Chapter of the B.P.O. E. Confers the 21st degree on a visitor who is a member of the B.P.O. E. of the City of New York.

PHOTOGRAPH BY HARRY RUBIN

Think Straight, Phillips Urges

Don't Be Misled by Slogans, He Advises Rotary

PHILIP H. PHILLIPS, past district governor of Rotary International, urged Binghamton Rotarians to think straight and not be misled by slogans during his address at the district convention here tonight.

THINGS TO COME

- TOWN'S CALENDAR
- 7:30—The B.P.O. E. District Convention at the B.P.O. E. in the city.
 - 8:00—The B.P.O. E. District Convention at the B.P.O. E. in the city.
 - 8:30—The B.P.O. E. District Convention at the B.P.O. E. in the city.
 - 9:00—The B.P.O. E. District Convention at the B.P.O. E. in the city.
 - 9:30—The B.P.O. E. District Convention at the B.P.O. E. in the city.
 - 10:00—The B.P.O. E. District Convention at the B.P.O. E. in the city.
 - 10:30—The B.P.O. E. District Convention at the B.P.O. E. in the city.
 - 11:00—The B.P.O. E. District Convention at the B.P.O. E. in the city.
 - 11:30—The B.P.O. E. District Convention at the B.P.O. E. in the city.
 - 12:00—The B.P.O. E. District Convention at the B.P.O. E. in the city.

SAVE ON WALL PAPER Clearance SALE KNAPP'S

MEN! This Fall Switch to Brownbits

Sullivan Brothers Open New Electrical Appliance Department

Furniture Store to Feature National Advertized Makes—Offer Home Demonstrations

MORSE & HERRICK, INC. BROWNSVILLE STORE

Flood Threat Lifted

The threat of serious flood conditions from the Southern Tier, accorded by a week of continuous rain, is being lifted as the weather improves.

From both the Binghamton Western District and Binghamton of the Binghamton Army Post, the weather bureau reported that the week had passed and the prospects of a better flood are excellent.

Under 100 rainfall were reported at the weather bureau as the most recent rain, about 1.10 inches, fell on the night of the 20th and 21st. The total for the week was 5.68 inches.

Having in the two counties was estimated at more than $100,000.

Clearing skies today lifted the threat of serious flood conditions from the Southern Tier, accorded by a week of continuous rain.

From both the Binghamton Western District and Binghamton of the Binghamton Army Post, the weather bureau reported that the week had passed and the prospects of a better flood are excellent.

Under 100 rainfall were reported at the weather bureau as the most recent rain, about 1.10 inches, fell on the night of the 20th and 21st. The total for the week was 5.68 inches.

Having in the two counties was estimated at more than $100,000.

Clearing skies today lifted the threat of serious flood conditions from the Southern Tier, accorded by a week of continuous rain.

From both the Binghamton Western District and Binghamton of the Binghamton Army Post, the weather bureau reported that the week had passed and the prospects of a better flood are excellent.

Under 100 rainfall were reported at the weather bureau as the most recent rain, about 1.10 inches, fell on the night of the 20th and 21st. The total for the week was 5.68 inches.

Having in the two counties was estimated at more than $100,000.

Clearing skies today lifted the threat of serious flood conditions from the Southern Tier, accorded by a week of continuous rain.

From both the Binghamton Western District and Binghamton of the Binghamton Army Post, the weather bureau reported that the week had passed and the prospects of a better flood are excellent.

Bridge Season in Triple Cities Is Under Way

Legion Stag Tourney Begins 12 Fair Start Play in 2 Sections

With the opening of the ninth annual American Legion stag the bridge season is under way in the triple cities. The first night, and the second tournament of the triple cities bridge season, will be held at a stag dinner on the night of the 22nd.

In the second section, where it was announced that the first night will be held at a stag dinner on the night of the 22nd.

On the 22nd, the first night of the triple cities bridge season will be held at a stag dinner on the night of the 22nd.

The first night of the triple cities bridge season will be held at a stag dinner on the night of the 22nd.

The first night of the triple cities bridge season will be held at a stag dinner on the night of the 22nd.

The first night of the triple cities bridge season will be held at a stag dinner on the night of the 22nd.

The first night of the triple cities bridge season will be held at a stag dinner on the night of the 22nd.

The first night of the triple cities bridge season will be held at a stag dinner on the night of the 22nd.

The first night of the triple cities bridge season will be held at a stag dinner on the night of the 22nd.

The first night of the triple cities bridge season will be held at a stag dinner on the night of the 22nd.

The first night of the triple cities bridge season will be held at a stag dinner on the night of the 22nd.

The first night of the triple cities bridge season will be held at a stag dinner on the night of the 22nd.

PHILIP H. PHILLIPS, past district governor of Rotary International, urged Binghamton Rotarians to think straight and not be misled by slogans during his address at the district convention here tonight.

PHILIP H. PHILLIPS, past district governor of Rotary International, urged Binghamton Rotarians to think straight and not be misled by slogans during his address at the district convention here tonight.

PHILIP H. PHILLIPS, past district governor of Rotary International, urged Binghamton Rotarians to think straight and not be misled by slogans during his address at the district convention here tonight.

PHILIP H. PHILLIPS, past district governor of Rotary International, urged Binghamton Rotarians to think straight and not be misled by slogans during his address at the district convention here tonight.

PHILIP H. PHILLIPS, past district governor of Rotary International, urged Binghamton Rotarians to think straight and not be misled by slogans during his address at the district convention here tonight.

PHILIP H. PHILLIPS, past district governor of Rotary International, urged Binghamton Rotarians to think straight and not be misled by slogans during his address at the district convention here tonight.

PHILIP H. PHILLIPS, past district governor of Rotary International, urged Binghamton Rotarians to think straight and not be misled by slogans during his address at the district convention here tonight.

PHILIP H. PHILLIPS, past district governor of Rotary International, urged Binghamton Rotarians to think straight and not be misled by slogans during his address at the district convention here tonight.

PHILIP H. PHILLIPS, past district governor of Rotary International, urged Binghamton Rotarians to think straight and not be misled by slogans during his address at the district convention here tonight.

PHILIP H. PHILLIPS, past district governor of Rotary International, urged Binghamton Rotarians to think straight and not be misled by slogans during his address at the district convention here tonight.

PHILIP H. PHILLIPS, past district governor of Rotary International, urged Binghamton Rotarians to think straight and not be misled by slogans during his address at the district convention here tonight.