Are your tomatoes ripening?

It has certainly been a sunshiny summer this year.

This is the week to read Welchs' new ad. on last page.

And this brings us plump into the first autumn month.

Mr. Ham of Philmont, is the guest of his uncle, A. P. Felts.

Miss Jeanie Wilson of Gilbertville spent last week in Morris.

Notice the ad. of the Morris Fair in all the county and nearby papers.

Harriet and William Swift of Syracuse are spending the week at A. G. Carlick's.

A very much needed rain fell last Wednesday night and during Thursday.

Mrs. A. E. Gifford will visit relatives in Walton this week and attend the Fair.

Everything is now moving toward the Morris Fair October 4, 5 and 6. Send to D. F. Wightman, Morris, for the Prize Book.

Mrs. George Whitman and son Charles have been spending a week at Bainbridge.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Washbon spent a couple of days with friends in Oneonta last week.

Leland Lull starts in this week to take a course in Lowell Business College in Binghamton.

Volney Hoke returned last week to Chicago, after spending two weeks at his old home in Morris.

New York has more farms occupied and worked by the owners than any other State in the Union.

J. W. Brownell of this village received much benefit last Thursday by visiting Bonsetter Sweet at Oneonta.

Miss Katherine Halstead of New Berlin has been spending a few days with relatives and friends in Morris.

Miss Esther Gifford has been visiting relatives and friends in Oneonta and Earlville the past two or three weeks.

Vacation season is over. Back to their school work go our teachers and to their city homes our summer visitors.

Mrs. Chas. Sheff and her son Harry Sheff and his wife spent several days in Cooperstown last week visiting relatives.

Edwin Hopkins and family spent last week in Morris. They have now returned to their home in Long Island City.

The Republican nominating convention is called for September 23d. The caucuses will be held on Saturday, the 17th.

Thirty-eight years ago there were six places in Morris village where liquor was legally sold. Now there are but two such places.

The Morris baseball season was ten weeks long, and but one game was called off by rain and that was part of one at Richfield Springs.

Mrs. Halsey and two children, who have been spending a pleasant summer in Morris, have returned to their home in Elizabeth, N. J.

Mrs. Cameron, Madison Cameron and Mrs. Laura Babcock of Albany were visitors among their Morris friends last week for a few days.

Henry C. Steele was taken suddenly ill one day last week and his condition since has been such as to give much concern to his friends.

Newton Richards and wife of Laurens and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. French of Broadbald, were visitors at E. E. Carpenter's yesterday.

Prof. H. W. Scott and wife of Brooklyn have returned to their city home. Mr. Scott writes us that owing to illness they were unable to visit Morris friends while in Otsego county.

Can any of our readers give us any information regarding Dea. Joseph Beck with or any of his descendants? He died in Morris in June 1853, aged 91 years, and came here from Sand Hill, town of Unadilla, in 1843.

The Bordens are out after more milk. They offer $1.80 for September milk, a raise of 30c over contract price. They are negotiating with the farmers whose milk goes to Filer Corners cheese factory to secure the product in bulk from the factory.

We learn that Adrian Mather has sold out his interest in "Sunrise Dairy Farm" in Pittsfield to his brother Arthur. They were partners in the ownership of this farm. We hope Mr. Mather will purchase a farm near Morris somewhere, and not move away from us.

The Crabbill tent was taken down last Thursday morning and moved to Guilford, where Mr. and Mrs. Crabbill join Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Rockwell of Ohio in a series of meetings. These four people will unite their talents for evangelistic work during the season of 1910-11.

Morris people, friends of the bride, a former resident here, will be interested in the following item: On Wednesday evening, Aug. 31, 1910, Elijah E. Parker of Garrettsville and Esther F. Luces of Edinboro were married by Rev. C. R. Hickok at the Methodist parsonage in New Berlin.
