Our Mr Mansfield returned from New York Saturday. The im mense stock of goods he bought are arriving every day. He never bought to better advantage. He never showed as good taste before or else the offerings were in greater variety than usual Any how we are showing the best assortment we ever had. It is too soon to get the stock classified for description in this space this week. We invite all to call and see us. For our lady customers we can mention one line of Fall Goods that will especially please, and that is our assortment of Ready Made House Dresses. Of these we have a fine stock and the prices this year bring these desirable and economical goods within the reach of all. When in town next week to attend the Fair take an hour off and run in on us and see our display which in many respects is superior to what you can see on the Fair grounds.
