

Council at Wenonah Picks Lee as Mayor

WENONAH — Russell Lee, acting mayor for the past year, was elected mayor of Wenonah for 1961 as council convened Monday for its reorganization meeting. All six members are Republicans.

James W. Harrison Jr. was sworn in as a new member. Harold O. Alexander and Anthony Sacca began their second terms.

Charles D. Johnson of Woodbury was elected solicitor. Anthony Marine building inspector and zoning enforcement officer; and Harold J. Sharp superintendent of water and sewer facilities.

Council will meet the second Thursday of each month, the same as in 1960.
