

WENONAH

A newcomer was elected yesterday along with two incumbents for three three-year terms on the school board.

Edward J. Campbell, a teacher at Gateway Regional High School, was elected to his first term by 224 votes.

Defeated in her bid for reelection was Mrs. Donna M. Foster. Incumbents who won were Robert T. Lentz, a medical librarian at Jefferson Hospital, Philadelphia, 226 votes, and James A. Clanton, a consulting engineer for RCA, 170 votes.

Voters approved a current expense figure of $116,618 by a vote of 214 to 42.

Mr. Campbell elected to school board.

Clipped By:

bob_thomas_wk
Wed, Nov 2, 2022