

W. I. Conway Dies; Mayor Of Wenonah

WENONAH—Mayor William I. Conway, 77, died today at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Mildred Dilks, of Elm ave.

Mayor Conway lived at 103 S. Lincoln ave. Mayor of Wenonah for 14 years, he was a councilman for several years prior to that.

Born in Pittsburgh, he was a resident here since 1924. Mayor Conway, employed by the Pennsylvania Railroad 54 years, was chief clerk of the railroad's main office at the 30th street station in Philadelphia until his retirement five years ago.

He was a member and elder of the Wenonah Memorial Presbyterian Church.

Also surviving are three sons, John S., of Cedar Grove; William R., of Bridgeton, and James M., of Wenonah; five grandchildren and two brothers, Dr. John M., of Pittsburgh, and Robert H., of Van Nuys, Calif.

Arrangements for services were being completed.

Obituary for William I Conway (Aged 77)

Clipped By:

bob_thomas_wk
Thu, Jan 13, 2022