

43 Charter Presented To Wenonah Club At Lions' Dinner

The Wenonah Lions club held its charter night dinner at the Club Shaguire.

Leonard K. Peters, of Merchantville, deputy district governor, was toastmaster, after an introduction by Pat Carbone, president of the sponsoring Mantua club.

Al McElroy, Vineland, Lions international counselor, was the principal speaker. The charter was presented to Theodore H. Worthington, president of the Wenonah club, by John E. Ireland, of Bridgeton, district governor. George Thompson, president of the Westville club, gave the new club its Lions banner.

Stanley Gernaga, tail twister of the Mantua club, gave orchids to the ladies attending the dinner. Mrs. Ireland offered a musical program.

Special awards for organizing the Wenonah club were given to Peters and Clifford S. Greenig, vice president of the new group.

Other officers of the Wenonah club include A. B. Porter, assistant secretary; Norman Sanger, lion tamer, and Edgar C. Richardson, tail twister.

Charter members, in addition to the officers, are W. Howard Blithe, George Bowker Jr., William F. Buckley, John H. Campbell, J. H. Coffee, John T. Cowles Jr., Raymond Dipper, H. H. Fassnacht, Donald Fiske, George Gaunt, Louis Hambrecht, Joseph A. Hofer, Charles Hornberg, Richard Kalbach, David C. Knight, Henry Koor, Barnard Lorence, Alfred McIlvaine, Josiah Park, Anthony Sacca, Samuel Smith, Ralph Sunday, Stanley Olkless and Francis Warner.
