

Wenonah.

Special to The Inquirer.

WENONAH, N. J., July 6.—The past week has indeed been a gay one in this place. The Fourth of July celebration, which eclipsed anything held in Gloucester county, and the many social gatherings, lawn parties and dances all made the time pass too rapidly for the many participants. On Monday morning a progressive euchre party was held at the Inn, when the different tables were set on the spacious verandas, and the scene was a merry one. It will be repeated Monday morning. Similar parties were held at a number of cottages also.

The Fourth of July Committee have the thanks of the entire community for the fine celebration they gave. The day was ushered in by a booming of cannon and ringing of bells. The "antique and horrible parade" was a feature of the day, and while patriotic to a great extent, was a laughable affair. At 10.30 a large flag was floated in the centre of the town, the exercises being under the auspices of the Jr. O. U. A. M. The display of fireworks in the evening was grand, and the selection exhibited good taste. The committee who had charge of the details consisted of Messrs. William J. Dawson, H. Lake Gilmour, Dr. Harry Stout, John B. Hambleton, H. G. Chase, E. Ward Wilkins, George A. Vogt, H. G. Peddle, W. M. S. Dougherty, James W. Carey, Harry G. Gaither, Eldorus Hurff, Eugene Peluze, Harry Chew, S. I. Middleton, John H. Vogt and George W. Stevenson.

These guests arrived at the Inn the past week:

D. K. Miller, Mrs. W. Walker, Miss A.

Wenonah, Part 1

Clipped By:

bob_thomas_wk
Sat, Feb 26, 2022